Announcement for Winter Term 2023/2024

1st year DENTISTRY

Education in subject 'Medical Chemistry and Dental Materials' in the winter term 2023/2024 for the first year students of the 1st Faculty of Medicine, English Class Dentistry program (group 1151) begins on Tuesday, October 3rd 2023 according to the issued syllabus.

The first, introductory lesson will be held in the Seminary Room No. 3.074 of the Institute of Medical Biochemistry and Laboratory Medicine, Kateřinská 32, the second floor, on Tuesday October 3rd from 9:00.

The course consists of lectures, seminars and practical lessons. Attendance is taken only at the seminars and practical lessons. At most three seminars or practical lessons (altogether) are allowed to be missed in one term from serious and certifiable reasons.

Lectures are held since the 2nd week of the term according to the schedule in the Seminary Room No. 3.074 every Tuesday from 9:00 to 9:45 a.m. They are formally non-mandatory and attendance is not taken. However, knowledge of the lecture topics will be required at the exam, and so attending the lectures is highly recommended.

Seminars are held since the 2nd week of the term in the Seminary Room No. 3.074 every Tuesday afternoon from 14:15 to 15:45 according to the issued syllabus. Attendance is recorded and active participation is expected. For the seminars students need writing tools and scientific calculator.

Practical lessons are scheduled only for certain weeks of the winter term and begin on November 10th. They take place in the Student Laboratory of our institute, Kateřinská 32, second floor on Friday afternoons from 14:15 to 16:30, according to the issued syllabus. Further information on the practical lessons will be provided later.

The subject ends with a CREDIT and ORAL EXAMINATION. The credit will be based on the attendance record, performance at the practical lessons and a written credit test scheduled for the 15th week of the term, covering all the topics of lectures, seminars and practical lessons. Further information on the credit test and subsequent oral examination will be announced not later than one month before the test period.
